Powerful Rachmaninoff Concert Caps TCA's 11th Season

Tucson, AZ (Feb. 16, 2015)—Tucson Chamber Artists will present Rachmaninoff's St. John Chrysostom to wrap up its 11th season, featuring TCA's Chorus.

A tour-de-force for choir, the work is one of two of Rachmaninoff's most significant a cappella works. TCA presented the other, Vespers, two years ago to sold-out audiences. St. John Chrysostom utilizes the old Slavonic language and texts that constitute the primary worship service of the Eastern Orthodox Church. In composing the work, Rachmaninoff said, "Not for a long time have I written anything with such pleasure."

The concerts will perform in several venues:

Friday, March 20, 7 p.m.
St. Francis in the Valley Episcopal Church
Green Valley

Saturday, March 21, 7:30 p.m.
Holy Resurrection Antiochian Orthodox Church

Sunday, March 22, 3 p.m.
Grace St. Paul's Episcopal Church

Sunday, March 22, 7:30 p.m.
Christ the King Episcopal Church

A special presentation will be made at the preconcert program which will begin 45 minutes prior to the start of the concert.

Tickets are $40 for premium seating, $25 for general seating. All seats in Green Valley are $30. Students are $5 at all concert venues.
