TCA opens its 11th season with music of America's rich folk and spiritual music traditions. A special segment of the concert traces the evolution of America's national anthem, in recognition of its 200th anniversary this autumn. Other songs considered treasured anthems will be performed, including Lift Every Voice and Sing, Amazing Grace and Danny Boy. TCA steps outside of the box with Woody Guthrie's This Land Is Your Land and Bob Dylan's Blowin' in the Wind, considered to be the most influential folk anthems of the last century. Beloved pieces by the "father of American music" Stephen Foster will also be performed, along with excerpts from Leonard Bernstein's Candide.

Vivaldi's Gloria is a perennial favorite of audiences, especially around the holidays. TCA's full company of musicians comes together for some of Vivaldi's most festive and contemplative music. Arvo Pärt has been recognized as the most widely-performed living classical composer in the world, and TCA has established itself as a leading performer of his music in the Southwest. Nominated for a 2014 Grammy Award for Best Contemporary Classical Composition, Adam's Lament is based on writings by St. Silouan, a Russian Orthodox monk, that describe Adam's grief from his banishment from Paradise and his hope for return. The concert opens with Vivaldi's ebullient harpsichord concerto featuring Guy Whatley. You will be inspired and mesmerized in this concert of contrasts.

Episcopal Church

Carmina Burana has been described as the world's most popular classical music. Its indelible "O Fortuna" chorus has found its way into innumerable movie and television commercial scores and into the consciousness of even the most casual classical music fan. The work is based on medieval texts from a monastery just forty miles from composer Carl Orff's home in Munich, which describe the joys and pitfalls of springtime, love and the tavern. For this concert, TCA presents Orff's authorized version for two pianos and percussion. You won't want to miss this rarely performed and equally exhilarating version of Orff's timeless masterpiece!

JOURNEY

With Bach

J.S. BACH Weinen, Klagen, Sorgen, Zagen, BWV 12

J.S. BACH Double Violin Concerto in D Minor, BWV 1043

J.S. BACH Mass in A Major, BWV 234

Featuring TCA Chorus, Soloists, Orchestra and Ellen Chamberlain and Benjamin Nisbet, violin

Friday, February 20, 7:30pm

St. Alban's Episcopal Church

Saturday, February 21, 7:30pm

Catalina Foothills High School

Sunday, February 22, 3:00pm

Grace St. Paul's
Episcopal Church

Sunday, February 22, 7:30pm

St. Andrew's
Presbyterian Church*

Cantata 12 is one of Bach's best-known early cantatas from Weimar, part of which he later reworked as the "Crucifixus" in his Mass in B-minor. As Kappelmeister in Köthen, Bach focused on instrumental composition, of which his masterful Double Violin Concerto is one of the most outstanding. In his ultimate position as Leipzig's Cantor, Bach produced an astonishing amount of sacred music. Lutheran Leipzig retained the first two parts of the Roman Mass—Kyrie and Gloria—in their original Greek and Latin, for which Bach wrote several musical settings. Bach's Mass in A Major is an excellent example of his brilliant Lutheran Missae Breves.

TCA returns to Rachmaninoff after sold-out performances of the Russian master's "Vespers" two years ago. Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom preceded his "Vespers," and the two are Rachmaninoff's most significant a cappella works. Of St. John Chrysostom, Rachmaninoff said, "Not for a long time have I written anything with such pleasure." A tour-de-force for choir, the work utilizes the old Slavonic language and texts that constitute the primary worship service of the Eastern Orthodox Church. Be transported by Rachmaninoff's masterpiece of profound spirituality and Russian Romanticism at its finest.

ABOUT US

Tucson Chamber Artists (TCA) begins its second decade as the professional chamber choir and orchestra of Southern Arizona. Having just celebrated its 10th anniversary season, TCA has experienced explosive growth since its inception in 2004, due to its unique programming, exceptional artistic quality and commitment to neighborhood performance venues.

Described by The Arizona Daily Star as “arguably the greater Tucson area’s finest musicians,” TCA is dedicated to enriching lives through the transformational power of classical music in programs that have been characterized by attendees as “the most interesting and varied in town.”

In our 11th season, we are proud to announce 50 percent more performances in new venues and areas of the community, bringing our music to where you live. This year’s theme lends itself to the imagery of doors in styles and locations that represent the music. We invite you to join us in opening these doors to exhilarating and heartwarming music from around the world in concerts near you. Whether you select one of the several flexible ticket packages (the best savings!), or want to sample a concert or two, experience for yourself what critics and music lovers alike have been talking about, in making TCA one of the fastest growing and most exciting professional arts organizations in the Southwest!
